Gayle Waldron Receives Top Honors at National Conference

LARGO, FL (April 21, 2008) – A successful entrepreneur and recognized expert on women's business issues, Gayle Waldron, President of The Management Edge® of Largo, FL has been named the winner of three awards from DiversityBusiness.com which will be presented at the 8th Annual National Multicultural Conference in Orlando, Florida, April 23-25, 2008.

The three awards Waldron will be receiving are: 1. Top Diversity Owned Businesses in Florida, 2. Top Woman Owned Businesses in Florida, 3. Top 500 Emerging Businesses.

The conference will be held in Orlando at the Disney's BoardWalk Resort and will address a range of critically important themes in the area of multiculturalism in business. Main speakers will include some of the world's leading thinkers in the field, as well as numerous papers and workshop presentations by researchers and practitioners.

The awards are given to the top small businesses and the most successful entrepreneur's across the United States. Making the list provides significant media exposure and will put The Management Edge® and other winning companies names in front of Fortune 500 companies, Government Agencies and College/Universities looking to do business with Women, Diversity and Small businesses.

"I am very excited and honored to be receiving these awards," said Waldron. "The exposure this will bring for The Management Edge® is priceless and will position us as leaders in business consulting and enhancing the performance and productivity of this great diverse domestic workforce."

For more information please contact The Management Edge® at 888-588-9481. To learn more about the conference visit www.DiversityBusiness.com/conference.
